

Continued growth spurs Oak Street Funding's move to larger office

Top insurance lender serving more clients with complex needs

Carmel, Ind. – To accommodate its continued growth, Oak Street Funding (www.oakstreetfunding.com), the nation's top insurance lender, will relocate to the 6th Floor at the Fidelity Plaza II building in Carmel, Indiana on June 24, 2011.

In the past few years, Oak Street has expanded its lending and service businesses having hired more employees to work with its increasing number of clients, many with complex requirements, according to CEO Rick Dennen. Oak Street plans to continue hiring and needs the space to meet the growth demands.

“With our current growth trends, the move to a larger space is essential,” said Dennen. “Plus, as more insurance agents and brokers, banks and other clients call on us to meet their multifaceted needs, we'll continue to expand our products and offerings.” Oak Street, which innovated commission-based lending, has grown steadily since its founding in 2003—even through the recession—and has solidified its position as the leading insurance industry lender.
